5. That a fund be appropriated by each Local Church, and that this fund be used for the purpose of evangelizing new fields.

Motion was adopted to receive Rev. James Daniel as an ordained minister from the Wilmington Conference of the Free Will Baptist Church.

Report of Committee on Missions.

Since the work of carrying the gospel to the ends of the earth has been left to us, and still more than half the world's population, is trying to find salvation apart from Christ, we recommend:

1. That each pastor and evangelist cooperate with the General Board with regards to the furtherance of foreign missions.

2. That each pastor see to it that missionary societies are organized in each of his churches, urging each member and others to join.

3. That each society meet at least once a month, keeping ever before the people the need. Also that special prayer be made that each spiritual and physical request may be met, that without hindrance the gospel may go forth.

4. That each evangelist hold at least one missionary service in each of his series of meetings.

J. M. Turner,
W. B. Godwin,
A. C. Holland,
Committee.

Motion passed to adopt report.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools and Pentecostal Young People's Society.

The Sunday School being one of the most important institutions within the church, we recommend:

1. That each church maintain an all-the-year Sunday School, and that every member of the church be expected to attend as regularly as possible, and cooperate in securing attendance of everybody else in the community as far as practical.

2. That in the election of the Superintendent of our Sunday Schools and all the other officers and teachers, great care should be taken to secure the best leadership, the most enthusiastic interest, the most efficient work, and the best spiritual applications of the lessons from our distinctive teachings on holiness and Pentecost.

3. That teacher's meetings be held each week, when possible, to study and discuss the lesson for the following Sunday and the best methods for applying its truths to practical living.

4. That every department of the Sunday School receive due consideration, so that proper division of time may be given to each phase of its work.

5. That Pentecostal Holiness Literature, published by our Church, be used in all our Sunday Schools, and that special emphasis be given to teach and apply our distinctive doctrines on sanctification as a definite second work of grace and the Pentecostal baptism of the Spirit with its initial evidence of speaking in other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance.

6. That we request the publishers of our literature to restore the Sunday School Magazine which has been discontinued, or find some other way to make sure of the Pentecostal application of the lesson truths which we study. If the only piece of our literature that gave the spiritual applications of the Sunday School lessons can be substituted by neutral or antagonistic lesson helps on Pentecostal doctrines, it would be very easy to substitute the whole line of our literature.

7. That all our Sunday Schools take upon themselves some outside responsibilities that would make them useful in service to others; and for this activity, we suggest that such Sunday Schools as are able to do so, take upon themselves the support of some child in the orphanage or at least organize some society in every Sunday School to encourage and help orphanage work, with a monthly offering.

8. That we have a Sunday School Rally Day or special service at least, in connection with each Annual Conference of our Church.

Pentecostal Young People's Societies.

The young people of today are to be the leaders in the work of the church tomorrow, and their practical experience can not begin too early; therefore we recommend:

1. That Young People's Societies be organized in every church, if possible, that they use the P. Y. P. S. Quarterly and that the greatest encouragement be given to their work.

2. That the older people attend their services, not to lead them, but to cooperate with, and to encourage them in their work and to show due appreciation of their efforts.

3. That the various local societies form themselves into a Conference which will hold an Annual Session each year within its bounds at some suitable place.

4. That the Conference Superintendent of the Church be the President also of the Young People's Societies.

I. H. Presley,
Mrs. R. L. Whitley,
J. A. Culbreth,
Vinson Ellenberg,
Vernon Ellenberg,
M. D. Sellers,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Motion adopted that Secretary furnish the Educational Board of the General Conference with a copy of this resolution.

Report of Committee on Education.

We recommend:

1. That the members of this Conference endeavor to impress upon our people the need and benefits of education under Pentecostal Holiness Influences.

2. That our preachers themselves study the Bible and religious literature to a greater degree, striving to improve their use of the English language that their preaching may be more effective. Correct language is sometimes as important as correct interpretation.

3. That all our members, both clerical and lay keep up the family altar and see that their children are taught the Bible.

5. That this Conference cooperate to the fullest extent with the General Conference through its Educational Board in the establishment of an accredited High School and Junior College.

4. That all our members see that their children have access to good literature and be kept from the influence of evil literature, as far as possible.

Signed,

W. B. Godwin,
J. H. King,
A. C. Holland,
Committee.

Bro. King spoke in behalf of the Educational Board, asking cooperation of the Conference.

Report of Committee on Memoirs.

We, your Committee on Memoirs, humbly submit the following report:

Whereas the Lord in His all-wise counsel, under the hand of providence, hath in His wisdom, called our elderly beloved and saintly brother, Rev. W. W. Pugh, who was a minister of excellent character.

And whereas our gracious heavenly Father hath showed His favor in calling our brother, Rev. J. D. Rollins out of a state of prolonged illness to one of peace and rest.

And whereas our beloved brother, Rev. H. C. Baker, who was a young minister with promising character, was suddenly called to his reward.

Wherefore be it resolved that we as a Conference body, even though we deeply appreciate the contribution these brethren were making to the cause we represent, and even though we keenly feel our loss, yet we do not question the wisdom of almighty God, but do humbly submit to our loss in the departure of our brethren, and rejoice in their gain of eternal glory.

Be it further resolved that we extend our sympathy to the relatives and friends of these noble brethren, and that this report be printed in the Pentecostal Holiness Advocate and in the Minutes of this Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

I. H. Presley,
N. J. Medford,
M. H. Alexander,
Committee.

Report adopted by consent of Conference.

Bros. Butler, Presley, Beasley, Sellers, Strickland, Godwin, James and Mrs. Whitley spoke in memory of those mentioned in report.

Report of Committee on Orphanage.

The Falcon Orphanage, having been for many years, of great service to our Church, and having been commended by our Conference for the good work it is doing, and having received such full endorsement from our last General Conference, we recommend that our Conference, in which this orphanage is located, put forth a more united and organized effort in its support.

We suggest that every church, through its Sunday School or otherwise, organize an orphanage society which will keep in touch with the work of the orphanage and make monthly contributions to its support.

The Apostolic Church, immediately following the outpouring of the Spirit, appointed seven of its best men to have charge of this class of church work, and the pure and undefiled religion that we profess, requires us to visit the fatherless and the widows in their afflictions; therefore orphanage work is distinctively Pentecostal and demands our best efforts in its support.

Great revival blessings came to the Apostolic Church following its actions, so that the Word of God increased, the number of the disciples greatly multiplied in Jerusalem, and our Church greatly needs similar blessings to come to it, and we recommend that the spirit and principles of this report be carried out in all our churches as a forward step toward the progress we so much need along all other lines of our church work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. Culbreth,
J. W. James,
P. C. Brooks,
J. G. Sewell,
Committee.
